EXHIBIT 100

STIPULATION

The United States and Defendant Couy Griffin agree and stipulate to the following:

On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the U.S. Capitol. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in both the House and Senate chambers of the Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on Tuesday, November 3, 2020.

On January 6, 2021, the House of Representatives began its session at approximately 12:00 p.m., the Senate began its session at approximately 12:30 p.m., and the two Houses met together at approximately 1:00 p.m. in the House of Representatives chamber to begin the joint session. At approximately 1:15 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to their separate chambers for up to two hours to resolve a particular objection.

At approximately 2:13 p.m., it was declared that the Senate would stand in recess. Senators evacuated the Senate chamber.

At approximately 2:15 p.m., Speaker Nancy Pelosi, who was presiding over the House of Representatives, evacuated the House chamber, and approximately fifteen minutes later the representative who had become the presiding officer in her absence declared that the House would stand in recess. Representatives evacuated the House chamber.
